

THE BLOOD COVENANT, PART 5
AFTER DARKNESS, LIGHT
Jeremiah 31:31-34

God's lovingkindness is far greater than the worst human rebellion.

A Brief Review

The Collapse of the Old Covenant

Jeremiah 32:30-35 (idols, child sacrifice)

Jeremiah 3:8 (spiritual certificate of divorce)

Jeremiah 34:18-20 (treated like the split calf of covenant)

Hope Beyond the Devastation

Jeremiah 29:10-14 (a future and a hope)

Jeremiah 32:37-42 (an everlasting covenant)

A "remnant" who returns to the land (Isaiah 54:7)

Internal spiritual renewal (Ezekiel 36:25-27)

A new joy and sincerity of worship (Isaiah 35:10)

The promise of a new covenant (Jeremiah 31:31-34)

Judgment Came (and So Did the New Covenant)

In Ezekiel's day, the glory of God departed (Ezekiel 10).

At Jesus' birth, the glory of God came back (Luke 2:9).

The new covenant comes in Jesus, but a new covenant requires a new death.

"Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us"
Galatians 3:13a
